

I am on the "Do Not Call List", however, I still get calls from places I have done business with and it can be very annoying. It is a pleasure not to receive the numerous calls I used to receive prior to the passing on this law. Please extend it as far as it can go.